

The logo for South Street Photography features a decorative flourish above the text. The words "South Street" are written in a large, elegant, brown cursive font, and "Photography" is written below it in a smaller, black cursive font.

South Street Photography

DETAILS TO LOOK FOR WHEN COMPARING ANOTHER PHOTOGRAPHERS WORK TO OURS.

We understand booking your photographer is one of the biggest decisions for your wedding. Here are several things to look for when comparing another photographer's work to ours. We want you to make an educated decision.

Are the images exposed properly? Is there detail in the dress? Can you see the bead work or the applique? Is the dress the proper color? Is it white? Is the tux black or is it off color? Is the sky blue as it should be or white with no detail in the clouds? Can't see the clouds because the sky is white?

Are horizons level, when they should be? A minor detail however can make a huge difference in the way a photo appears in your book or on your wall.

Are people connected in family groups or tossed together? Does the group look neat and organized? Are hands placed in a pleasing manner, neatly in a pocket, on someone's arm? If arms and hands are hanging freely, do the hands/fingers appear awkward?

Groups, bridal party families, are the lines clean and straight or are people loose and appear out of place? Gaps between people? Faces blocked? Groups should be neat and clean unless we are doing something fun or "out of the box". They should be natural not forced. More relaxed. You can see this easier than you think. You may not know exactly what it is that bothers you in an image, but, it's there.

Was the emotion captured? Was that one moment caught in that instant or lost forever? You'll never know if you don't see it. If you don't see it, well, it was never captured.

You may not notice the finer details as we're working with you, however, those details will make the difference between images you like and images you are absolutely in love with. A little attention to detail is all it takes.

Attention to the details. The little things will make all the difference in the world in your wedding day photos. It's the experience that counts, our ability to see the little things. To take care of you, your family and friends from start to finish.

Our goal is your complete satisfaction. Any questions or need to compare, please feel free to call. Even if it's only a question to clarify something in your mind or something someone said that didn't make sense. We are here to help any way we can. We want you to make the best decision for your upcoming wedding. Hopefully that decision is to book us. If not, at least we educated you so you could make the best decision.